

EuroTimes is official media partner for WOC® 2010

Berlin, July 2009 – EuroTimes, the magazine of the European Society of Cataract and Refractive Surgeons, has been designated the official media partner for WOC® 2010. EuroTimes will carry regular updates on the Congress in the run up to the meeting which takes place from June 5 -9, 2010 in Berlin, Germany and will have the exclusive licence to print an ET Today bulletin giving breaking news from the sessions during the Congress.

Welcoming the partnership WOC® 2010 president Prof Gerhard Lang said: "We have chosen EuroTimes as our official media partner because it is a modern journal with a worldwide distribution which will help us to highlight the scientific programme of WOC® 2010. In EuroTimes, we will provide more congress-specific information over the next year and during the congress delegates will also be able to find out what is going on in the special EuroTimes newsletter ET Today which will be distributed to delegates."

Ms Carol Fitzpatrick, publisher of EuroTimes and Deputy Chief Executive ESCRS said: "We are delighted to be given the opportunity to work with WOC® 2010 and look forward to keeping delegates informed in the coming months of all the latest developments relating to this worldwide conference."

In case of publication please send a proof. On request interviews with Professor Lang can be arranged and pictorial material will be provided.
